Of great importance to us

- As a family business with an 80 year history we primarily source our raw ingredients and packaging from our home country.
- Now in our third generation, we develop and produce exclusively at our German premises.
- The Speick plant (lat. Valeriana celtica) is gathered by hand, as it has been for centuries, by Kärntner farmers as part of a conservation project. We support the active protection of this controlled organic harvesting.
- We do not conduct any animal testing and do not commission it from other parties.
